GLENDALÉ MAYOR JERRY WEIERS TAKES TO CITY STREETS ON A TRACTOR TO HIGHLIGHT SAHUARO RANCH PARK EVENT ON “GLENDALÉ TODAY”

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Mayor Jerry Weiers drives a tractor from City Hall to Sahuaro Ranch Park to showcase the park’s 25th annual winter antique tractor show in his new edition of the TV show “Glendale Today”. Mayor Weiers talks to Larry Rovey, a longtime Glendale farmer and tractor collector, about the city’s partnership with the Arizona Early Day Gas Engine & Antique Tractor Association. Besides showcasing all the many tractor events at the show, including tractor pulls, a plowing demonstration, a tractor parade and hundreds of small antique engines, the Mayor discusses how the partnership came to be and what the group has done for fundraising and upkeep to the park.

Mayor Weiers also talks to Joanna Brace from the city’s Parks and Recreation department on how important the tractor association has been in supplying and maintaining farm equipment for demonstrations for visitor education and for preserving the history of agriculture in Glendale.

The show begins airing March 27 at 8 p.m. “Glendale Today” is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11. The show will air daily on Glendale 11 as well as online via the city’s video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
